Dear Parents

Following on from recent events in London, I understand that you may have increased concerns regarding the trip to Greenwich Royal Observatory and wish to reassure you, once again, that we will only travel if it is deemed safe to do so by the appropriate authorities at the time.

I am aware that some parents may be considering withdrawing their children from the trip. Obviously, it is entirely your decision whether you choose to send your child on this trip or not. I would however, be grateful if you could let me know if you are considering this as an option so that we as a school are able to ascertain if it will be feasible to run this trip for the remaining members of the class.

We are currently waiting for the updated information from Kent Outdoor Education, as they have not yet issued guidance following the terrible incident in London, over the weekend. Once we have received the latest update, we will be in a position to discuss the options as a Senior Leadership Team and contact you again. We will take into account any feedback that we receive from parents in the meantime.

Kindest regards

Therésa Jaggard
Deputy Headteacher
