Gymnastics Event

Eight children from KS2 took part in a gymnastics festival at Aylesford Sports College on Wednesday after school. They performed 2 routines (floor management and body balance) then they completed 3 jumps on the vault. Each child performed with confidence and skill and Mrs Wardle and the parents were very proud of them. They represented the school well in every area, on what was a long evening for them. We are awaiting the results of where we came.

Young Voices 2018

It was the day we had been waiting for and the moment had arrived. The Leybourne School children from Year 5 and Year 6 sat in the O2 arena with a total of 7981 other children, full of excitement, as the Young Voices concert was about to commence. Suddenly, the lights went off and the arena was plunged into darkness, until it was filled with thousands of tiny torch lights, like stars twinkling in the night sky.

The band started to play a 'secret song' and as the spot lights lit up the stage, the 'Urban Strides' dancers emerged from the darkness and broke into a dramatic dance display. As all the children in the huge choir cheered and screamed, the noise was deafening and the atmosphere was electric and full of anticipation. On the signal from the conductor, the children rose to their feet, the audience went silent, colourful lights lit up the choir and we all began to sing. Singing with so many others felt exhilarating and powerful. We sang many songs, some of our favourites were: 'The Call', 'Why we sing', 'Extraordinary' and the pop melody. Some songs had actions and dance moves that everyone did together; for the other songs we waved our arms and made up our own moves.

We did not perform alone: there were also other performers that joined us in the concert. They included, 'The Magnets,' who were an a cappella group with a beat-boxer; Nathalie Williams – an extraordinary gospel singer who wrote one of the songs, the singer Alfie Shear (a sixteen-year old internet star) and, of course, 'Urban Strides.'

In conclusion, it was a really great experience and it was a once-in-a-lifetime adventure that we will never forget.

Lent Act of Worship

The Rev Canon Brenda Hurd led a special Lent Act of Worship this week. The children thoroughly enjoy listening to Brenda and we are delighted that she has offered to support us during Fr Matthew's absence. As part of the Act of Worship, Brenda challenged the children to

Thank you...

To Mr Barnsley for giving up his time today to paint the Key Stage 1 area. It really does look fantastic! To the Cole Family for the very kind donation of a storage unit, which is being put to excellent use by Mrs Reeves to house her many teaching resources! And finally to Miss Morley-Ocsko and Mr Upton for their lovely donations of stationery.

Your kindness and support are very much appreciated.

Prayer of the week

Little deeds of kindness
Little words of love
Help to make earth happy
Like the heaven above

Amen

Have a lovely Half Term break
